LOCAL HOUSING ASSOCIATION MOVES TO NEW OFFICES

Local Basingstoke Housing Association, Kingfisher Housing Association and its parent company, Wessex Housing Partnership are moving to a larger headquarters building in Basingstoke this month.

Kingfisher and Wessex have been growing over the last few years, and their current offices at Chailey Court, Winchester Road are too small for their expanding business, so moving just up the road is an excellent opportunity to aid the expanding business.

Kingfisher and Wessex's new offices are at Saxon Court, Sarum Hill, Basingstoke RG21 8SR and are situated at the top of Sarum Hill opposite Domino's Pizza and only 150m from their old offices.

Kingfisher residents should note that Chailey Court will be closed for business from 5.00pm on Wednesday 20 August and the new offices at Saxon Court will open from 8.30am on Wednesday 27 August.

Brian Hutchison, Wessex Group Chief Executive said, "These are exciting times for Wessex and Kingfisher and we have expanded greatly since moving into Chailey Court in 1995.

This move to larger premises is very positive. Saxon Court is in an ideal location for our residents, provides better services and is easily accessible for other customers to visit us."
