KINGFISHER RESIDENTS INVITED TO GO WILD IN BUCKSKIN

“The Wild West” comes to town on Saturday 19 July between 1.00pm and 5.00pm, with the annual Buckskin Fun Day taking place at the Ridgeway Centre, Buckskin.

This annual event, on a “Wild West” theme, is led by the Community Wardens, Police Community Support Officers (PCSOs), Accredited Community Safety Officers, the Extended Schools Service and Kingfisher Housing Association. There will be a host of activities for Buckskin residents to get involved in. As well as being entertained by the Wolf Pack Re-enactment Group and local line dancing troupe, there will be a fancy dress competition, bucking bronco, numerous side stalls, tombola and refreshments.

Last year's Buckskin Fun Day was very well attended and this year is sure to be no exception.

Martin Littleboy, Kingfisher's Resident Involvement Officer said, "Kingfisher is pleased to be supporting the Buckskin Fun Day again this year. It is a great day out for all the family and shows that residents can come together and have fun in this community."

The Buckskin Fun Day is a free afternoon out for all the family.
