Roxburgh House supports Lions open day

Kingfisher HVHS Housing Association's Roxburgh House, sheltered housing scheme in Locks Heath are pleased to be supporting the Lions Club of Swanwick at their exhibition event on Saturday 27 February.

The exhibition event will take place at the Locks Heath Community Centre, Locks Heath between 10.00am and 2.00pm. It will be attended by other local agencies such as Rotary, Communicare, Hampshire County Council Sensory Unit, representatives from Fareham Borough Council and Roxburgh House.

Residents of Roxburgh House will be on hand to talk to visitors about their housing scheme and what it has to offer, and in particular care and support in the community and sheltered housing in general. If you have ever wondered what sheltered housing is, come and along and find out.

Roxburgh House is one of 21 sheltered housing schemes for the over 55's owned and managed by Kingfisher HVHS. With 31 units of accommodation it offers residents the comfort of their own home with a scheme manager who is able to offer support.
