Residents invited to unite at South Ham Easter event

Sovereign Kingfisher, Hampshire and Isle of Wight (IOW) Police, Basingstoke Labour club and other partner agencies will be hosting an Easter Event on Saturday 10 April 2010 between 1pm and 4pm at the Basingstoke Labour Club in Kings Road, South Ham.

There will be lots of events going on throughout the afternoon including entertainment from a magician, balloon artist, face painter and a caricaturist. And Easter would not be complete without a traditional Easter egg hunt for children to join in.

It is hoped that there will be demonstrations throughout the afternoon from Basingstoke Boxing Club, Hampshire Fire and Rescue, Basingstoke GKR Karate Club, the Army, St Johns Ambulance, the Scouts, Richard Aldworth Community College and the Road Policing Unit (RPU).

There will be a prize of a Giant Easter Egg for the best fancy dress outfit. So kids (and adults!), get working on your costumes now!

For further information, please contact Harry McKeown at Sovereign Kingfisher on 01256 302 406.
